Staff Present: Daphnee Legarza, City Manager; Richard Appicello, City Attorney; Michael Phillips, Executive Assistant to the City Manager.

2. DISCUSSION ITEMS

A. Legislative Priorities

The City Council, City Manager and City Attorney discussed the legislative priorities.

Council's top five priorities are; Lodging Tax Flexibility, Address Measure 110 Shortcomings, Property Tax Reform, Infrastructure Financing and Resilience and Local Funding to Address Homelessness.

B. Miscellaneous

Council and Staff discussed fireworks and felt there was less than previous years. Mayor Wahlke said she had more issues. Ms. Legarza mentioned staff will have debriefing to review fireworks events to include things to change next year to address issues at the next Council meeting.

Council and Staff discussed the Planning Commission interviews with the new questions. Mr. Appicello stated if Council wants to approve new questions but not use them for the one remaining candidate that is an option. Councilor Starmer suggested interviewing the one remaining candidate with the previous questions and saving the new questions for a new vacancy.

Mr. Appicello and Council had a discussion regarding the Municipal Court Judge and Hearings Officer positions.

Mayor Wahlke said Ms. Legarza, two councilors, and herself attended a meeting in Newport last week about use of grant from county for the homeless. Council need to appoint a representative and alternate to the advisory board. Ms. Legarza stated it is on Monday's Council Agenda. Mayor Wahlke said she is the representative for the Mid-Willamette Valley Regional Transportation Committee and had not attended. Mayor Wahlke asked if the City Recorder notifies the Committees after election.

3. ADJOURNMENT

Mayor Wahlke adjourned the meeting at 4:50 PM.
